Sponsorship Opportunities

As one of the Symposium Sponsors, your company or organization will be supporting the International Symposium on Health Aspects of Calcium and Magnesium in Drinking Water, an international platform for exchanging ideas among key players in the drinking water and health industries. Sponsorship opportunities are offered as a way to help defray the costs of the Symposium's development as a successful event of the highest scientific quality.

Benefits: All sponsors will be recognized appropriately on signage, Symposium website, marketing materials and customized visibility depending on the sponsorship opportunity that best matches your organization's needs. Your organization will receive both tangible and intangible benefits for sponsorship.
